Chemotherapy Induced Peripheral Neuropathy

Are you or a loved one a cancer survivor? You've made it to remission but now you are still left with the aftermath. Permanent or irreversible is not a word you want to hear from your doctor but it's common if you've been diagnosed with Chemotherapy Induced Peripheral Neuropathy or CIPN.

The most common method your doctor will recommend to treat your Chemo Induced Neuropathy is prescription drugs. These may temporarily reduce your symptoms but also cause you to experience terrible side effects.

Common Symptoms

Sharp, shooting,
electric-like pain

Loss of balance and coordination

Muscle cramping
or twitching

Burning sensation
or freezing pain

Nearly half of the patients who undergo chemotherapy will develop CIPN. The tingling, numbness, sharp pains and cramping become constant companions for patients after already surviving one of the toughest battles anyone can fight.

Now for some good news. There is a facility right here in Rapid City, SD that offers hope for relief without having to take drugs with harmful side effects. West River Acupuncture & Wellness specializes in treating CIPN.

Imagine Relief!

Imagine Enjoying Your Day!

Imagine A Pain Free Life!

The team at West River Acupuncture & Wellness, has been helping the community for over 14 years using the most cutting edge and innovative integrative medicine. Specializing in chronic pain cases, specifically those that have been deemed 'hopeless' or 'untreatable', West River Acupuncture consistently generates unparalleled results.

Far away? We've got you covered!

Here at West River, we offer personalized distance care programs, delivering the same thoughtful approach and proven results no matter where you are!

West River Acupuncture is now accepting a limited number of new patients. To ensure the quality of care for their patients West River will only be accepting 7 new CIPN patients before April 8th, 2026. Our comprehensive neuropathy evaluation is being offered for $40 ($270 value) through March. Call TODAY to get your life back: (605) 981-5522
