Custer Fine Artists Festival

Russ Duerksen

spent much of my youth exploring the outdoors watching and studying wildlife in their natural habitat. Those outdoor excursions inspired me to sketch and create many paintings over the years. In the mid 1980's I entered conservation stamp contests along with other art competitions sponsored by conservation groups. At the beginning I lost many of those contests but as my skill improved I began to win. This launched my career to the point of going full-time in 1993 and continues to this day. I primarily work in Acrylic and Graphite, sometimes combining both mediums. Most of my art is wildlife, landscapes and some domestic animals. After creating the original art I scan it and print the canvas and paper reproductions. When I finish a painting I look forward to sharing it with others to get their reaction. When people view my artwork, I want them to feel like they can identify with it or hopefully it brings back fond memories of their own outdoor experiences. That's when I feel the painting is successful. To view my art go to www.russduerksenart.com

SOME NEW STINGERS — Jimmy Ray & The Stingers are seasoned blues men from right here in Custer. Their magnetic bluesy sound is a sonic love letter to classic blues from every era. From soulful ballads, to highly-danceable shuffles, these cats know how to groove! The band now consists of Jonathan Jacky on horns, Eric Boyd on drums, Jimmy Ray Fechner on guitar and Louis Umbarger on bass. The group will perform at the Prairie Dog Taproom outside of Hill City this Saturday night. [Submitted Photo]
