Custer Fine Artists Festival

Joan Peterson

Joan Peterson was born in eastern South Dakota, and now lives in Hill City. She self taught the art of pine needle basket weaving, which is called coiling. Once perfected, Joan taught her seven sisters and one brother the ancient art form which is a Native American tradition. Joan started participating in state wide art events two and a half years ago, and often it becomes a family affair with her siblings. Joan's art creations are sold through her business name, Uniquely Crafted, and at galleries through out the area.
